She was sittin' at a bar
In LAX
Reading Cosmo
How to have good sex
When she saw him walkin'
Through the security check

Well she gave him a wink
Said come over here
Hey hey good lookin'
Can I buy you a beer?
It's like Nelly said
It's getting hot in here
(I want to my clothes off)

She said I'm headed out to Vegas
On a 747 in thirty-five minutes
Down at gate eleven
If you want to get lucky
I'll take to heaven
He said I got a million dollar meetin'
Up in New York City
If I ain't there it
I'll be a cryin' pity
But somethin' 'bout you is
Too damn pretty

(Chorus)
They got caught up in the moment
Couldn't help themselves
They got caught up in the moment
Got was wild as hell
It was everything they wanted
Right then and there
They got caught up in the moment
Caught up
Caught up

At twenty-thousand feet
On a southwest flight
She whispered to him
We ain't got all night

So he reached up
And turned off
The overhead light

And by the time they landed
Sure enough
It was more than lust
But less than love
They were full-fledged members
Of the you know what club

(Chorus)

(Instrumental)

He was ten grand up
At a blackjack table
She was dressed to the nines
Drinking fine Black Label
He said
I think I'm gonna cash out
Buy you a diamond ring

So they headed down the strip
To the wedding chapel
In a stretch limousine
That was candy apple
Got married by a preacher man
That looked just like the king
Yeah they...

(Chorus)

(Repeat Chorus)

Caught up
Caught up

Caught up
Caught up

Caught up
Caught up

Caught up
Caught up
