Well I walk into the room, passing out hundred dollar bills,
And it kills and it thrills like the horns on my Silverado grill.
And I buy the bar a double round of Crown,
And everybody's gettin' down and this town ain't never gonna be the same!

(Chorus:)

Cause I saddle up my horse and I ride into the city,
I make a lot of noise, cause the girls they are so pretty,
Ridin' up and down Broadway on my old stud, Leroy,
And the girls say "Save a horse, ride a cowboy!"
Everybody says "save a horse, ride a cowboy".

Well I don't give a dang about about nothin'
I'm singin' and bling-blingin',
While the girls are drinkin' long-necks down.
And I wouldn't trade old Leroy or my Chevrolet for your Escalade or your freak parade
I'm the only John Wayne left in this town!

(Sing Chorus)

I'm a thoroughbred, that's what she said
In the back of my truck bed
While I was gettin' buzzed on suds
Back out on some old country road.
We were flyin' high fine as wine and havin' ourselves a big and rich time,
And I was goin' just about as far as she'd let me go.
But her evaluation of my cowboy reputation,
Had me beggin' for salvation all night long.
So I took her out giggin' frogs, and introduced her to my old bird dog
And sang her every Willie Nelson song I could think of and we made love.

(Sing Chorus)

What, what, save a horse ride a cowboy.
