I would never hurt you
Can't say I'd never make you cry
Cause this life ain't always easy
But in this world you complete me

We're meant to speak by speaking
We run by running faster each day
And if I know how to love
It's because you taught me how

Dear fortune and love
I heard you favour the brave
And if that's the chase then you'll always be safe
Cause you're the bravest man I've ever known
Cause you're the best thing I've ever known

I see my life in your eyes
They melt me like the snow in November does
And I am you and you are me
You deserve every possibility

So dear fortune and love
I heard you favour the kind
And if that is true then you'll always be fine
Cause you're the kindest man I've ever known
Cause you're the best thing I've ever known

When we talk the world makes sense
And here with me I always go find our dreams
And make me a murder with a kiss
Cause your fingerprints forever mean like this so..

Dear fortune and love
I heard you fader the good
And if that is true then we'll always be safe
Cause you're the best thing I've ever known
You're the best thing I've ever known

And I wish you all the fortune and love
