I saw the sun for the first time today
It's been so long, I thought you'd gone away
And now I feel as though I've been here before
Once again, my friend
I'll see you to the end
Here I am, this is me
What you get is what you see
Look around I am free
And there are no fears in me.
Here I am
At times the world seems to scare my soul
I don't know where I'm headed
And I don't know where I'll go
I know it's not as bad as it seems to me
Once again my friend
I'll see you to the end
Here I am this is me
What you get is what you see
Look around I am free
And there are no fears in me
Here I am
I saw the sun for the first time today

It's been so long, I thought you'd gone away
And now I feel as though I've been here before
Once again, my friend
I'll see you till the end
Here I am this is me
What you get is what you see
Look around I am free
And there are no fears in me
Here I am this is me
What you get is what you see
Look around I am free
And there are no fears in me
Here I am
And this is me
