u say u broke up with your boy the other day, i don't want to play rebound or nothin' but i'm feeling something, that your single again but your just a friend. what i want to do would be considered a crime but i can't help it u stay on my mind.

(Hook)

u ain't like the other girls at school u be making your own rules
your own rules. tryin' to take control of everything and that makes me sick.
but u stay on my mind stuck to me like a tick.

(Verse2)

like i said i don't know what to do i really like you but we sort of like homies comfort each other when we both lonely. i don't want to take the chance ruining our friendship with a crush, i see u at lunch and in the hallway everyday but u don't know that i gaze at u often. i don't know if it's my hormones gettin' in the way but u look xtra cute today.

(Hook)

although i can't stand it when u start barking out commands i kind of like it. it's sort of (romantic) u know any way i want to know if u need, want, or desire a man. i know that we are friends i want u to be my girlfriend.
