Lil mama tell me what it do, is it still gone be me and you, cause I ain't got time to try to find time if we thru if we thru, now u steady lieing all in my face, saying that you love me, well tell me how, girl don't cry, cause u wasn't crying when you did that dirt, so don't cry now, a wise man told me, neva leave the one that you love to be with the one you like, old girl should have listened, you in that position, beggin me and tellin me you want to do right, we break up to make up, forgive and forget, and now I just don't feel the same, maybe when I'm gone and you spend time alone.you'll feel my pain... my pain...

I gave you everythang
U gave me nuthin back
I gave you everythang
That u asked even more
I gave u everythang
I gave u more than u asked
I gave u everythang
