tried to write a love song i wanted it to be just right tried to make it beautiful but all i could think of was our last fight i was going to play it on piano have the drums come in real bold but i couldn't think of anything good to say so the big ballot strings will never get played pretty melody i wrote will never get sanged piece of paper i started with i threw away a song about our love will never see the light of day why?
cause you made it that way ohhuhhohh yeah yeah you made it that way
i was gonna write you a love song but you screwed it all up playing games noow ya just a lame whos __ outta luck (crazy ass bitch)
i almost wrote you a love song

She threw my watch out the window chain in her hand she running threw the crib finding anything she can our relationship is not the only thing thats outta hand she even called my mama and said you need to get ya man cause ya son lying on me i aint trying to get a tan? and this the last time he'll have me crying in my hands so im heading to the club to try and find me a man. bitch you going to the club to try and find a man what is you saying _____ but you the only one imagine in white gowns so where ya left hand you should let me add a ring to it. because mr & ms Anderson just has a ring to it she like why you act like that to me and walk right back mike jack to me every time we fall out ill throw yo ass out but you just end up boomeranging back to me. what the fuck

but you screwed it all up
playing games noow ya just a lame whos __ outta luck
