man i got my dark glasses on cause Im ready for the big lights all my money counted all my rubbers skin tight me I always stood out you was more the in type i never followed suit u were more like pin stripes riding ye\\\'s maybach smokin so its cloudy with 3 girls who spend all day doing pilates getting money niggas think i joined Illuminati throwin west side up im feeling like kiluminati now isnt it ironic that im in a big body paranoid cause every rapper named big got bodied boy, and my bitch got body but i sit her in the back cause my nigga called shotty and im a g ohtay im a og rockin something high end like a fuckin o.d. they feel a nigga from ny to the oc if we down in the 4th quarter i take it to o.t. then take it to 1 & o jsut take it to o & me chillin in a hot spot cause i never get cold feet nigga you on the side lines praying for an audible cause when your legendary everything is quotable boy, priceless is affordable order what you can afford matter fact order more and i think imma have the same thang my whole team gettin cash i just call it gang green big is on the track ye be on the track since when kobe and lebron hoop for the same team can live my life blindfold cause every time my eyes close

i just tend to fuck around and see the same thing yeah i just tend to see the same thing they say its meant to be when you sleep to the same dream i hooked up with good and been living a changed scene im tryna turn these grey clouds to vanilla skies camera in my face i guess the future will be televised and im as underrated as the beat fuck it if im underrated i stay on some g shit nigga i chief up its December 25, 365 forever putting wreath up and your girlfriend forever wanna meet her tryna see what is in common but my dick is whats between us man i break her heart everytime i change hoes i make a new stop every time i change clothes man they jock my rhymes every time i change flows one of the few gettin change but wont change for it
