Yeah,
Know a nigga don't really wanna take his cool off uh boy
[Hook: Roscoe Dash]

Early in the morning when she's all alone
I'mma take my time, do it how we want it
Just to set the mood, girl
I bought some Marvin Gaye and Chardonnay

[Kanye]
Hold up X10, yeah

[Verse 1: Big Sean]
She love the way I'm doing it (She do it)
So good she won't put my tattoo on it
Bottom line is, you the finest
Gave you a new name, what's that?( X3) My bitch
Hold up, hold up, whoa there
Let's capture this moment
If I hit it then I own it, Marijuanin' every mornin'
And Patroning girl, we groaning
But that pussy got me feeling like a kid with the street lights on Street lights on? You know I got it going 'til it's

[Hook: Roscoe Dash]
Early in the morning when she's all alone
I'mma take my time, do it how we want it
Just to set the mood, girl
I bought some Marvin Gaye and Chardonnay

Just let the song play
The long way
The strong way
It's our day
It's our way
This was all inspired by a little Marvin Gaye and Chardonnay

[Verse 2 - Kanye West]
Hold up(X7), talk to the, talk to the hand

Bitch, you talking to a grown ass man
It's like, way way way too much in

Your pants for us not to make the bed squeak
There goes the bed sheets!
Everybody rip the swag off
Before I rip the tag off
Why my pants sag off, cause I'm rapping my ass off
Flow so ugly, money so handsome
This the fucking anthem, get it? The fucking anthem

[Hook]

[Kanye West]
I don't really wanna uh talk too much shit
But you love it when I talk like I lost it
And I love how you look when you blazin'
And I swear you turn at least half Asian
And we about to have a liaison
She so cool, give head with her shades on
You should just go and throw a cape on
And it's just so amazing

[Big Sean]
Take it to the car, bloop, bloop, that shit look like I'm speed racing
Leave em with me, it'll boost your reputation
Westside is where I'm stationed
Spend all night, just champagne tasting
Ain't no rest girl, lets just pace it til it's...

[Hook]
