blood beach bikini bitches I couldn't stand the crowd fat women and screaming kids I had to shoot them all down and I couldn't stand the sun >< 2

I shot them all down >< 4 tequila and wine and too much sun I shot them all down with a loaded gun wanted to do it for a year or more but always me shooting up on the floor and I couldn't stand the sun >< 2 in the haze of the summertime >< 3 blood flows like wine

see the fire in my eyes hatred for all I do despise violence flowing through my veins sands turned red blood beach again

and I couldn't stand the sun >< 2

I shot them all down >< 4
