satans rejects nobody's slave nobody's fool nobody's tool nobody's judge kicked out of hell cos they were too bad kicked out of hell cos they were too good

CHORUS

fall down a cliff
impale your heart sell your soul do anything that you want satans rejects, slave to none endless pathways depths unknown now we're dead and free from roam kicked out of hell cos they were too bad

CHORUS

black riders in the night darkness hides them safe tonight from this pathway they shall roam now they're dead and all alone

CHORUS

demon dungeon encrusted claw search the silence search the moor kicked out of hell cos they were too bad
