music & lyrics: Rene

Damned for thousand years
Now they have the power
Make their wars
Full of human's blood
They only want the redemption
Of the belief in Jesus Christ

Damned faith
In Jesus Christ
Made of blood
And human flesh

I'm rising from the ashes
My wings are made of flames
Led to the fight
With the freedom of demons

There are still more of 'em
Who want to destroy the church
To torture the priest
To burn his temple

Damned faith
In his world of beauty
Is fading forever
Bible is covered in dust

Damned for thousand years
The false faith
Will lose all its rights
When its king is dead
We'll dishonour their symbol
The CORPSE AND The CROSS
