Feeling useless deprived of it all
Respect never preserved always being sold
Revenge wasted ever to create
Seeing through me energising your hate.

Power doomed upon me
Creature given rebirth to see
Buried under a crown of thorns
Exiled to find it's army of spawns.

A deep look in the future seeing
All that hate
Nothing left to see no more, only
Left to faith
Destroyed is all I can say
Peace never more
Hung like a hollow shadow
Doomed like a lost soul.

Plunged into darkness
Drenched like a grave
Left with insomnia
Eyes melt with pain
Seeing no future, realising it's the end
People regret their grief it's Time to descend.

Ribs torn out in hate
Lungs blood detorate
Skulls explode at my site
No one dares for it's my rite.
