Take Care of yourself darling,
I guess, I guess this is goodbye.
Tomorrow's coming quicker than yesterday came today, I guess this is goodnight, Cause' We've all got one night together, so lets start the party.
You know we rocked, promise you won't forget about me.
So these moments spent are coming to an end, I'm counting seconds,
Till' next time again.

Listen. One Two Three Four Five... Six Seven Eight Nine,
We couldn't change it if we tried.
One Two Three Goodbye.

We all said before, our time is here,
But it never meant a thing until we all began to tear.
& I'll be aching before and after we depart,
From remembrances from the very start.
The grand memories together [laughs] the grand memories together,
Now here I am, it's your song I'll be singing, Your the voice I heard inside my head.
These moments spent are coming to an end, I'm counting seconds until next time again.

Listen. One Two Three Four Five, Six Seven Eight Nine,
we couldn't change it if we tried, One Two Three Four Goodbye.

We've raised our voices, we've followed our dreams,
One thing I will be to us, I will never be too cool, for Camp Rock Three.
These memories are coming to an end, I'm counting seconds until next time again.

Listen. One Two Three Four Five... Six Seven Eight Nine,
We couldn't change it if we tried.
One Two Three Four Goodbye.
