LOVELY LADY OF ARCADIA
We met one magic summer day
A dream came true and blew a way
For as your love began to grow
The time had come for me to go
Now all that I am living for
Is to come back to you once more
Lovely lady of Arcadia
Promise you will wait for me
In your arms I found my Shangri-la
And it's where I long to be
Lost in love eternally
I feel alone among the crowds
And sunny skies are filled with clouds
I miss your kiss and your embrace
The empty smile that lights your face
And just as long as we're a part
The same old song will haunt my heart
Lovely lady of Arcadia
Promise you will wait for me
In your arms I found my Shangri-la
And it's where I long to be
Lost in love eternally
Lovely lady of Arcadia
When these lonely days are thru
I will stay and pray Arcadia
Shall be paradise for two
Paradise for me and you
Shall be paradise for two
Paradise for me and you
