Lost in a dream
I saw you standing there
On the edge of a gleaming white chair
I asked you why and you started to cry
For a class you're going to fly

I thought it's strange
So I said please don't go
Stay with me we can play in the snow
Your stormy eyes told me it was goodbye
And in fact you flew off with all sighs

A dream is something we create
(Deep down inside of soul)
The world where we communicate
(Deep down will long to now)
Ohhhh Ohhhh...

Lost in a dream
I saw you disappear
In the night like a bitter sweet tear
Spinning around just a bird bearing in pain
I feel flat with the first rays of dawn

When I erowed
It was late afternoon
At the door stood a clown with a broom
You'll have to leave
He dorked me with a sneer
Can't you see that your place isn't here

A dream is something we create
(Deep down inside of soul)
The world where we communicate
(Deep down will long to now)
Ohhhh Ohhhh...

Chorus

Lost in a dream
I saw you standing there
On the edge of a gleaming white chair
I asked you why and you started to cry

And at last you were going to fly

I thought it's strange

So I said please don't go

Stay with me we can play in the snow

Your stormy eyes told me it was goodbye

And in fact you flew off with all sighs
