When the flare goes in slow
You can straight thing up an so...

Sad existence you gotta keep on walking
Lost in the dust you gotta keep on sweeping
And still ther' re voices coming through you head
Mumrmuring your' re half dead

Uneasiness you gotta be patient
Depressed you say you you gotta be patient
Everything comes from you
Get that and you' ll your due

Scotch and vodka you'd better be prudent
Pills and tablets you'd better be prudent
And what you're gonna do when looking through you
And all the misery on table

They say: "We're not gonna fool you"
"No way we're not gonna slime you"
"This way we're not gonna let you down"

And they say: "We're not gonna fool you"
"No way we're not gonna slime you"
"This way we're not gonna let you down"

You feel insecure and can't say the future
Out of usage bet hundred for sure
And all the memories that come to your mind
Makes you feel a bit half-blind

Undecided you gotta be patient
Lost in your brain you gott be patient
And all turns al arround you
But nothing seems to be new

Vicius circle stuck in a square
Wall in a tricky wide space dare
And all you gotta to do is to play your part
Just a game no need, no art

Then

They say: "We're not gonna fool you"
"No way we're not gonna slime you"
"This way we're not gonna let you down"

And then
They say: "We're not gonna fool you"
"No way we're not gonna slime you"
"This way we're not gonna let you down"

When the flare goes in slow
You can straight thing up an so...
