I live down here on my knees and face where the prayers flows non-stop and the air is full of grace sometimes i feel so much like a coward i could die but then i feel your peace as you silently remind me that i can always hide inside your arms theres too much knowledge for one soul to bear i asked to recieve it but now i just feel scared to know of all the hatred and feel the apathy the chosen consequences its all too much for me id much rather hide inside your arms because somehow i feel that i belong you feel like home

i know my place is here at least for a little while but i'll keep on untill you call your faithful child but any strentgh that you can lend out to me so i can send words of hope and life, i sure could use it tonight
