Verse

I hold you in like a deep breath.
Feel you like the last beautiful touch before a final rest.
I know i'll see you forever.
I want it painted black and red.

(Chorus)

It's so beautiful to me, it's everything i see.
It's so beautiful to me, but it's nothing that i need.

Verse

And i can't taste anything less.
Every time i'm forced down.
To be with yourself, take all the blood you want.
But not me from here.

(Chorus)

It's so beautiful to me, it is everything i see.
It's so beautiful to me, but it's nothing that i need.
Not a hand, not a finger.

This is my home.
I'm dying here.
I hide in the corner.
That look on your face...
I'm accustomed to it.
