Now this is a story,
Listen if you dare,
How Big Time Rush move-up to Bel-Air
When we saw some paparazzi,
Invaded our home,
(You dogs need some protection)
He said with a glare
And that's why BTR is heading out to Bel-Air

Move it up to Bel-Air
Move it up to Bel-Air
Move it up to Bel-Air
Move it up to Bel-Air

We said goodbye to our friends in the form of a rap
Camille kissed Logan, then she gave him a slap
We drove through the gates, to take the grand tour
With all the snoop-protection we'll be safe and secure
As we road through Bel-Air, friendly faces there to greet us
They said they're our new neighbors and they're happy to meet us

Move it up to Bel-Air
Move it up to Bel-Air

Now we're kickin' it in the town, where the living is flush
Please excuse us while we give Bel-Air a Big Time
