Looking up for Heaven
Looking in places that you would regret
Think you found somethin'
Well here, stick around 'cause you ain't seen nothin', yet

Come on to me with your rationale
And I'll do my best to show you somehow

Might take a lifetime, might take a minute
If God made Heaven, then He wants you in it

Ever been lonely?
What am I saying, we've all been lonely
I'm here to tell you
My Lord Jesus, He's the One and only, yeah

Come on to me with your rationale
And I'll do my best to show you somehow

It might take a lifetime, it might take a minute
If God made Heaven, oh then He wants you in it

Waiting for your sun to shine
I'll wait 'til the day I die
Don't you go and wait that long
Now I want to see you there with me, yeah

It might take a lifetime, it might take a minute
If God made Heaven, then He wants you in it

Well, it might take a lifetime, it might take a minute, yeah
If God made Heaven, then He wants you in it
