Kendall:

When the chips are down, back against the wall.
Got no more to give, cause we gave it all.
Seems like going a distance is unrealistic.
We're too far from the start.

Carlos:

(Preface):

So we take what comes and we keep on goin,
Leanin on each others shoulders.
Then we turn around and see weve come so far somehow.

(Chorus): (James)

We're halfway there, were lookin good now.
Nothing's gonna get in the way.
We're halfway there, and lookin back now
I'd never thought that I'd ever say
We're halfway there
We're halfway there

James:

If we never flew, we would never fall.
If the world was ours, we would have it all.
But the life we live isn't so simplistic, you just don't get what you want.

Logan:

(Preface)

So we take what comes and we keep on goin',
Leanin on each others shoulders.
Then we turn around and see weve come so far
somehow.

(Chorus): (James)

We're halfway there, were lookin good now.
Nothing's gonna get in the way.
We're halfway there and lookin back now.
I'd never thought that I'd ever say
We're halfway there
We're halfway there.

Logan:
(Bridge)
How you ever gonna reach the stars
If you never get off the ground
And your always here were you are,
If you let life knock you down.

(Chorus): (James)
We're halfway there, were lookin good now.
Nothing's gonna get in the way.
We're halfway there, and lookin back now
I'd never thought that I'd ever say.
We're halfway there
We're halfway there.

(Logan):
Oh, We're halfway there.
