"Psalm 72"

My Lord will soon be coming down
Like the rain on new mown grass
Showers fallin' on the thirsty land

The righteous man will flourish in those days
And for as long as the moon runs 'round
Peace will abound

I sing praises, I sing praises
Praises to my Savior
Praises to my Lord

All those who dwell in wilderness
Will bow down licking dust
And kings will follow, bringing gifts to my Lord

With one cry, He'll deliver those in need
All the meek
And those who have oppressors in the world

I sing praises, I sing praises
Praises to my Savior
Praises to my Lord

And blessed be the Power
Blessed be the Glory
And blessed be the Name

I sing praises, I sing praises
Praises to my Savior
Praises to my Lord
Jesus
