A shadow falls upon the earth
This is the coming of our nemesis Slowly we watch as their armies descend
We are prepared for battle
We will fight until the end
Till every soul has passed We'll never let them take our lands
We'll fight them till our deaths

Seek not the coming tranquility in days of darkness that fall
The darkness is spreading fast and it's black shroud engulfs us all
And hell descended upon us
Like a raging flame, spreading through the trees Destroying all life in it's path, destruction and devastation I see Lands of kings and might of men will not reign supreme
In this world that's tormented by darkness, infested by demons
The future has been sealed

Up in arms we prepare for the final conflict, prepare for the coming storm
They come from the darkness of the nether regions, seeking power and eternal domination War Cries, the silence dies Impeding doom, we shall deny Sentence all your destinies to the after life, in total oblivion
We shall not fall in darkness, we shall stand and fight Rid the world from the harness of the evil demons Over lands and souls of ours, we shall deny them life

King of darkness we wage war on you against your vile plague.
We wont fall before you Succumb to your sword
We'll wage this war
The shadow of darkness has fallen before us
This war is won

Into the future we step forth
With dreams we go
