Hear our prayers Gods of Wrath
Strike with swords of fire
Blood of man, we've sacrificed
Genocide invoked

You have given us power to rule
The power to take you away
Hatred, our food, the spilled, blood our wine
You made sure that you fed us well

You've awoken us finally, fools
And offered us eternal reign
Night and day, we will turn into red
And as we are here we will stay

Hear our prayers Gods of Wrath
Strike with swords of fire
Blood of man, we've sacrificed
Genocide invoked

Hear our prayers Gods of Wrath
Strike with swords of fire
Blood of man, we've sacrificed
Genocide invoked

Hear our prayers Gods of Wrath
Strike with swords of fire
Blood of man, we've sacrificed
Genocide invoked

So you've chosen and so it may be
It finally comes to an end
Man has chosen his own destiny
In death, you will now lay to rest
