A fatal incision cuts apart
Inject the living, don't you breath too hard
No lines to rehearse, no spell, no curse
It's all or nothing to take til tomorrow
Before you take it in under your heavy hand
Before you get pinned for nothing
A light goes farther away, go away

Take this body to study and know it's name
A timeless face will haunt you
Don't you worry it's just for a lifetime
Before you take it in under your heavy hand
Bofore you get pinned for nothing
Look around
