When my feet touched this holy ground
The earth did sing and spirit resounded
Anzara, Anzara

It was my home of a distant time
I could not recall but my heart did find it
Anzara, Anzara

I feel your love for me
I give to you all that I am
Anzara, Anzara

Such vibrations
I have never known before
I heard you calling from the depths of my soul
Anzara, Anzara

We have returned to our sacred home
To come together in love, peace and oneness
Anzara, Anzara

I feel your love for me
I give to you all that I am
I feel your love for me
I give to you all that I am

Anzara, Anzara, Anzara
