Oh oh whoa oh
Whoa oh oh whoa oh

There are so many things
That I never ever got to say
'Cause I'm always tongue tied
With my words getting in the way
If you could read my mind,
Then all your doubts would be left behind
And every little thing
Would be falling into place
I would scream to the world
They would see you're my girl
But I just

Keep getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up
In the middle of a perfect day
I'm tripping over words to say
'Cause I don't wanna keep you guessing
But I always end up getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up

Oh oh whoa oh
Whoa oh oh whoa oh

It's the way that I feel
When you say what you say to me
It keeps you running through my mind
24/7 days a week
And if you've got the time
Just stick around and you'll realize
That it's worth every minute that it takes Just wait and see
I would scream to the world

they would see you're my girl
But I just

Keep getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up
In the middle of a perfect day

I'm tripping over words to say
'Cause I don't wanna keep you guessing
But I always end up getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up

I'm over the chances wasted
Tell me it's not too late
It's only the nervous times
That keep me bottled up inside

Oh oh whoa oh
Whoa oh oh whoa oh

Keep getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up
In the middle of a perfect day
I'm tripping over words to say
'Cause I don't wanna keep you guessing
But I always end up getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up

Yeah yeah
Oh oh whoa oh
Whoa oh oh whoa oh
Oh oh whoa oh

'Cause I don't wanna keep you guessing
But I always end up getting stuck, stuck
But I'm never giving up, up
