I bet you didn't notice
First time your heart was broken
You called me up and we talked till the morning

And the time that you were stranded
I was there before you landed
He was a no show, I made sure you got home

And I've been right there (right there)
For every minute
This time, it's no different
Whatever happens you should know

Cause you're not alone, girl
Look over your shoulder
You don't have to wander
Cause you know, you know, you know

You're not alone, girl
I'll be there to hold you
I'll stay till it's over

And you know, you know, you know
That you're not alone
That you're not alone

All the days that you were stressed out
Feeling like pulling your hair out
They were all missing but I was here listening

You gotta believe in me
Even if you can't see me there
I'll catch you when you fall

Cause I've been right there (right there)
For every minute
This time, it's no different
Whatever happens you should know

Cause you're not alone, girl
Look over your shoulder
You don't have to wander

Cause you know, you know, you know

You're not alone, girl
I'll be there to hold you
I'll stay till it's over

And you know, you know, you know
That you're not alone
That you're not alone

I'll be here for you no matter what
Goes around the corner

Whoa oh, whoa oh, whoa oh, whoa oh

As long as I am breathing
You won't have to worry no more

Cause you're not alone, girl
Look over your shoulder
You don't have to wander
Cause you know, you know

Cause you're not alone, girl
You don't have to wonder
Cause you know, you know, you know

You're not alone, girl
I'll be there to hold you
And you know, you know, you know

That you're not alone
That you're not alone
That you're not alone
That you're not alone

I bet you didn't notice
First time your heart was broken
