i felt a million times like like you were here and i was was ready to give my love(oh baby) i never dreamed that it would come would come to be this way one day your here the next you dont know my name maybe it was my imagination thinkin you knew how i felt inside

cause it seems you always pass me by now that ive seen so vividly you standin next to me or was i just in love with my mind because i sware theres nothing i want more than to know why when i see ya

i call you but you dont know whu i am

maybe it was my imagination
