My sweet inspiration
Everything I hoped to be
You're the dawn that rises for me
My summer wind from the sea>

Some lucky day
You came my way
And shared my joy and sorrow
With words so true
You colored blue
The clear skies of tomorrow

I touch your hand
And once again
You gently say you need me
You're more than spring
The love you bring
Is laughter for every day

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
Everything I hoped would be
You're the dawn that rises for me
My summer wind from the sea

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
You're my tender harmony
If it's rain, it's music I hear
Only because you are near

The words you say
In your own way
Can fill my heart with sunshine
Somehow I know

This love will grow
And that you'll always be mine
The morning dew
Can talk to you

When you awake each morning
The friendly wind
Will stop and sing
The moment you say hello

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
Everything I hoped would be
You're the dawn that rises for me
My summer wind from the sea

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
You're my tender harmony
If it's rain, it's music I hear

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
My summer wind from the sea

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
Only because you are near...near
