You're always there to light my cigarette
You send me flowers that say you won't forget
When we're walking hand in hand you seem so far
And the tender words you say to me out loud, they leave no doubt

It's almost time to slip into a dress
I comb my hair, I want to look my best
And I have your favourite meal when you get home Cos your loving makes me feel so safe and warm, it's in your arms

You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
Together forever, my love, my love

I must confess at first I felt assured
I'd care for heartaches, but your love was a cure
All the happiness we share is like a dream
And all my dreams are coming true because of you, only you

You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
Together forever, my love

You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
You're all that matters to me, my love
You're all I've wanted, you're all I've needed
