i was done with people i had had enough of them and the ways they sought to take me down
but there you came with your life you fantastic golden one and gave me love like i'd never known you gave me life, you gave me hope i want to live for something i don't really want to die here anymore
so i'll wait and see what life has i was done with myself i had had enough of me and the ways i sought to take me down
brilliant lightning gorgeous one and

you gave me life, you gave me hope
we all live
we should know love
we all should love.
