I've got to get myself together Cant afford to let my faith go, you know When ever Jah sun comesa shining and my sisters are all smiling no one is dying,my people arent crying we are living in the love of the father, living in the house of the almighty,(repeat2x) ooh yeah ooh yeah

The days of destruction will never be, oh no Not hard for the wise man who can see But the fool thinks he knows it all, sooner or later he stumbles and falls He goes down for a reason, Jah keeps giving him a beating to the foundation they'll have to go down to the foundation chant them down to the foundation they'll have to go down to the foundation, oh ho well oh ho well

(repeat2x)
