I have waited long enough for this tear
Now, it comes, it comes
Falling in slow motion
My heart is falling in slow motion
And they're telling all the junkies to bleach the needle
But the thing I'm addicted to is just as strong
Your love has got a hold on me that I just can't break
And your leavin' here
Is killing me.
You got what you wanted
You got what you needed, baby
And I don't feel like pickin' myself up
Today
I'm broken
I knew it had to happen
You'd find a way, you'd find a reason
To bring it all down, bring it all down
'Cause there's never enough for you, girl
And they're telling all the junkies to bleach the needle
But the thing I'm addicted to is just as strong
Your love has got a hold on me that I just can't break
And your leavin' here
Is killing me.
You got what you wanted
You got what you needed, baby
And you don't seem to care who you step on
Today
I'm broken
Today
I'm broken
