You stand before me now, like a vision
Even you don't know the strength of your beauty
And I know by now you're drunk
But I have learned just to take
What I'm given

I never said I was a gentleman
Cause I've put away those childish things
Let's spend some time in the sack
See what tomorrow brings

The warmth of your disposition
Only lets me know, all my lies
Have been good tonight

I never said I was a gentleman
Cause I've put away those childish things
Let's spend some time in the sack
See what tomorrow brings
