Tears are dripping from my eyes when I think of what you've done
Spoke to me - had nothing but lies
Then and now you are gone

Tell me what means forever
That you'd never go away
I remarked "You either"
Had to crumble to this day

My life seems so sinister without you being here
And I've gone crazy from that pain
Watching all of this appear
Holding out my hand
Waiting for your grip
I've been waiting far too long
Now I'm tired of your shit.
