High over the hills to fly and still
This must be the feeling I did will
Up here where the cradle rocks the night

Hold it in my hand
Feel it in my heart
The twilight in your eyes
Tells me I'm alone

I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone

Steer between the parting clouds that call
Wait for all the shooting stars to fall

Quiver in voice
Tears on my shirt
Too much to say
Nothing but words

I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone

And no-one will be watching
Because no-one wants to know
And if I had three wishes
Which way would you go?

I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone

I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
