Fame, could estrange effects
Money can estrange effects
I ask myself
Is it as it, be flexible
When all comes in
Open the window and I'll go out to you

Fame, could also cure
Girls can estrange effects too
I ask myself
Is it as it, be flexible
When all comes in
Open the window and I'll go out to you

Your love, for some loves
Your love, cut our hearts
I ask myself
Is it as it, be flexible
When all comes in
Open the window and I'll go out to you
I ask myself
is it as it, be flexible
When all comes in
Open the window and I'll go out to you
I ask myself
Is it as it, be flexible
When all come in
Open the window and I'll go out to you

I ask myself
Is it as it, be flexible When all comes in!
