I've been trying so long I forgot why
I never knew the cause
I played the games that people play
Discussing yesterday's wine
But I'm lonesome at the nightclub still
Waiting for the sun
So did you all come here to watch me watch
With tired champagne eyes?

You see I gave it all I had now (Quit whining)
I tried the best I could now (Try harder)
I even laughed at your jokes (Haha)
But I just can't feel the love tonight

If this is heaven then I'm losing faith
I guess I don't believe
You know I never felt like growing up
But I'm not staying here
Because the night's still younger the break of day
There's a lot that we could do
So did you all come here to leave with me
With tired champagne eyes

You see I gave it all I had now (Quit whining)
I tried the best I could now (Try harder)
I even laughed at your jokes (Haha)
But I just can't feel the love tonight

I'm lonesome at the nightclub still
Waiting for the sun
So did you all come here to leave with me
With tired champagne eyes

You see I gave it all I had now (Quit whining)
I tried the best I could now (Try harder)
I even laughed at your jokes (Haha)
But I just can't feel the love tonight
