They're more than just words
They're colors to paint my feelings for you
And I know how that there's no way to show you Just how much I care

And I feel it, oh, so deep within me
And I know that there's so much left to share
All the times you're away, feels just like eternity
As the moments that we had, had to end

The strokes of the brush
Brings me closer to your touch
Through the hues we'll find a way to follow
I know we will

And the colors are so vibrant like the sun on the ocean
And the hues they will change from day to day
But I know that, that the picture of love would last forever
On this Canvas of our lives that we create
(And our love will last forever)

And I know that always, I saw to try to display
Just how precious that you are to the world
'Cause I know with just a touch, you can show me, oh, so much
That there's more to this life than what we see

The strokes of the brush
Brings me closer to your touch
Through the hues we'll find a way to follow
I know we will

And the colors are so vibrant like the sun on the ocean
And the hues they will change from day to day
But I know that, that the picture of love would last
forever
On this Canvas of our lives that we create
(And our love will last forever)

Colors may fade
Turning vibrant to gray

But one things unchanged
The picture is still the same

And through the days and nights the vision lives on
forever
And through a masterpiece of love me made together We've given all we can, I know the world will understand
The picture is of you and me

And the colors are so vibrant like the sun on the ocean
And the hues they will change from day to day
But I know that, that the picture of love would last
forever
On this Canvas of our lives that we create
(And our love will last forever)
