One last cup of starlight
Before I wake, and start my day
A past so filled with promise
Before I lost, I lost my way

Oh that's OK and I'm alright
I guess I'll be lost again
For one more night
Ooh and that's alright and I'm OK
I'll wear the Albatross
For one more day

As a rest recalls the romance
Before the bills
And what you make
I lost my friend in between them
And that was more
Than I could take

Oh that's OK and I'm alright
I guess I'll be lost again
For one more night
Yeah, well that's alright and I'm OK
I'll wear the Albatross
For one more day

Oh that's OK and I'm alright
I guess I'll be lost again
For one more night
Ooh, that's alright and I'm OK
I'll wear the Albatross
For one more day
I'll wear the Albatross
For one more day
I'll wear the Albatross
For one more day
And because I know, I'm alright
