So we were on our way home
On the right bus
I just want to ask the driver
If it's not too much fuss
To drop me at the old lady's
And pick me up tomorrow
If you could, If you could

It's all by design
To keep me from losing my mind

Well I was on my way there
And it was just around the corner
I caught a funny stare and I started a fight with the owner

Well it's the whole nine yards
And I fold all my cards in your face, oh
'Cause I love what is real
And I loved you my dear
Before you were replaced
Oh, you were replaced

And it's all by design
To keep me from losing my mind
So I saw you over there
And acted like I don't care
'Cause I've never seen something that made me stare

Yea, so then we run through your backyards
And throw all my press cards in your face
Yea in your face
Because I love what is real
And I loved you my dear before I was replaced
I was replaced

And it's all by design
To keep me from losing my mind
It's all by design to keep us from losing our minds

We were on our way home
And we were on the right bus

I just want to tell the driver
Don't bother 'cause it's a bust
