"Break Of Dawn"

when you take the top and the sun is rising high across the early morning sky will you be there lay the demons down to rest feel the warmth is my caress as i slowly fall to sleep i will be there in your arms till the stormy waters come i relax and be your touch in the places that i lust hold me feel me never let me go dont let me go show me need me coz i want you to stay and lead me to the break of dawn will you be there (repeated) on the coldest darkest night are you sure well be alright? as we gently drift to sleep in a secret fantasy you are always there with me and i trust you in my heart do you promise that we'll never part hold me feel me never let me go show me need me coz i want you to stay anbd lead me till the break of dawn
