Every now and then
I can feel this feeling
Hooking up to back when
There's a difference
Can tell the difference
Between history and regret

It's the same old world
Where we grew up
And there's no one to blame
For why we're all screwed up
You can bury your head
In a great big hole
Did you ever believe
That you were in control?
In control

I can be a picture
Be it with me, beat it baby
Beat the monkey back down
It never feels
Like the real feeling
Dealing with the poor deal
Hand me downs

It's the same old world
Where we grew up
And there's no one to blame
For why we're all screwed up
You can bury your head
In a great big hole
Did you ever believe
That you were in control?

We're locked out of heaven
And it's all my fault
You never noticed I had it
Till it starts to fall

Remember the boy
Who never grew up

They've put him away
And now he's all screwed up
He's swallowing pills
Knows when to say when
He gets to believe
He'll be just like them

It's the same old world
Where we grew up
And there's no one to blame
For why we're all screwed up
You can bury your head
In a great big hole
Did you ever believe
That you were in control?
