Chorus:

Well, I'm one hundred percent, not 99 and nine tenths Hundred percent pure fool
I wasn't very good at fractions back in school
But I know what I am, I'm one hundred percent pure fool

I guess I wasn't thinkin', guess I lost my head
I stayed out a drinkin' while you were home in bed
You were makin' coffee when I came stumblin' in And it's painfully clear I've been a perfect fool again

Repeat Chorus

Strung out honky-tonkin', a foolish man it seems Leaving you at home, dear, alone with just your dreams
You could take me back and forgive me if you can
But I won't blame you for leaving, 'cause you know just what I am

Repeat Chorus
