Longing, you found me again
Deep in my heart
That's how it begins

Longing, you always win
I'll never ask why, when I start to cry
Longing again

I hear your voice and I see your face
Dreaming at night, I feel your embrace

Longing, dreaming and then
Once more I awake, my heart starts to break

Longing again

Longing, remembering when
Those sweet thoughts of you, were all that I knew
Longing again

I hear your voice and I see your face
Dreaming at night, I feel your embrace

Longing, dreaming and then
Once more I awake, my heart starts to break
Longing again

Once more I awake, my heart starts to break
Longing again
