Don't keep your love from me
Bring it over to these loving arms that long to hold you tight
I should thank you, for showing me the meaning
Of those painful days and sleepless nights

Each day hurts more than the day before
And each lonely night, seems to never end
No, no, all that's left here to hold me tight
Are those painful days and sleepless nights
I'm still here in misery, where you left me
And I must be a sad and lonely sight
You must be making sure I know full well the meaning
Of those painful days and sleepless nights

Each day hurts more than the day before
And each lonely night, seems to never end
No, no, all that's left here to hold me tight
Are those painful days and sleepless nights
Yes, those painful days and sleepless nights
