"Right Place"

Visit "Right Place" on MotoLyrics.com

If you're looking for a life of luxury
Then you ain't looking for a man like me
But if a simple life to you is no disgrace
Honey, you came to the right place

The right place is right here in my arms
Here with me eternally right next to my heart
For promises of love you can embrace
Honey, you came to the right place

If you're happy with a man who's never home
I'll tell you now, I'm not a Rolling Stone
If walking hand in hand is more your pace
Honey, you came to the right place

The right place is right here

Promises of love you can embrace
Honey, you came to the right place
Honey, you came to the right place
Honey, you came to the right place
