Well, it was one hot day in mid-July
I had a little fight with that gal of mine
She went to the store for some cigarettes
Well, it's been three days and she ain't back yet

Well, she left me cold, she left me cold
Well, I'm lookin' just like Jack Frost or so I'm told
Well, it's a hundred degrees outside
But she left me cold

Well, that little gal of mine, she made me hot all the time
She kept me warm in the wintertime
But now I sit and shiver while the big tears flow
Until the icicles hang right off my nose

Well, I'm lookin' just like Jack Frost or so I'm told
Well, it's a hundred degrees outside
But she left me cold
Well, the weatherman says that it's hot outside
But I wouldn't really know
I'm wearin' two sweaters and woolen socks
But I'm chilly from my head down to my toes

Well, I'm lookin' just like Jack Frost or so I'm told
Well, it's a hundred degrees outside
But she left me cold

Well, the weatherman says that it's hot outside
But I wouldn't really know
I'm wearin' two sweaters and woolen socks
But I'm chilly from my head down to my toes

Well, I'm lookin' just like Jack Frost or so I'm told
Well, it's a hundred degrees outside
But she left me cold

Hey, hey, hey, it's hundred degrees outside
But she left me cold
